WISCONSIN PREP STANDOUT JOINS GRIZZLY FOOTBALL PROGRAM

MISSOULA--

Curt McGinness, a 6-2, 180-pound quarterback from Janesville, Wis., has signed a national letter of intent to join the University of Montana football program, announced Grizzly coach Larry Donovan.

McGinness was a three-sport standout at Craig High School in Janesville. He was the MVP in football, basketball and track.

His 1979 football team was 8-1, and he was all conference and the Big 8 Conference Player of the Year. He was also team captain and an honorable mention all-state pick.

In basketball his team finished 20-5, was champion and state "A" runnerup. He was all conference, team captain and made the state all-tournament team.

As a trackster McGinness had bests of 10.9 in the 100 meters, 22.5 in the 200 meters and was team captain. He was selected as his high school's Most Valuable Athlete. He has also received numerous awards from various local groups.

He will major in Health, Physical Education at UM.
